

PRIVATE PARTY FAQ'S

How many people does the space hold?

We have two options for renting out our party room. For groups of 20-35 people, you can rent half of the room at a discounted rate. The room will be divided to give you a semi-private experience. If you'd like to rent the whole room for a smaller party, you can, but you may be subject to food and drink minimums.

For groups of 36-100 people you must rent the entire space.

I'd like to come in with 10 of my closest friends, do you take reservations?

No, unfortunately we do not take reservations. Tables are first come, first serve. We recommend calling to give us a heads up (especially on weekends) when coming in with a large group. We will always do what we can to accommodate you!

Can I bring my own food or drink?

All food and beverage is served buffet style and must be supplied by Steny's. If you are celebrating a special occasion, we do make exceptions for dessert, just let us know!

Can I order off the menu?

For parties of 25 or less, yes you may order off of our regular menu. All other parties must order off of our party menu.

How much notice do you need?

In order to provide you with the best experience possible, we'd appreciate a minimum of one month's notice for all parties. Weekends fill up fast, so earlier the better! Is your event less than a month away? Don't fret, we can sometimes pull a few strings, just email us!

How long do I have the rental for?

The rental fee covers 4 hours worth of time in the party room. You can add additional time for an extra fee!

Can I make the space my own?

Sure! Feel free to decorate the space to your liking. You may play your own music as well. The room is also equipped with 5 TV's. Just let us know what you need!
